Call to Worship

Be joyful in the Lord, all you lands;

Serve the Lord with gladness and come before his presence with a song.

Know this: The Lord himself is God, he himself has made us, and we are his;

We are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving; go into his courts with praise,

Give thanks to him and call upon his name.

For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting;

And his faithfulness endures from age to age.

Let us worship God.

Introit

Rejoice!

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Look at the World

John Rutter

Look at the world: everything all around us. Look at the world and marvel every day.

Look at the world, so many joys and wonders, so many miracles along our way.

Praise to thee, O Lord for all creation.

Give us thankful hearts that we may see

All the gifts we share, and every blessing,

All things come of Thee.

Look at the earth bringing forth fruit and flower, look at the sky, the sunshine, and the rain.

Look at the hills, look at the trees and mountains, valley and flowing river, field and plain.

Think of the spring, think of the warmth of summer bringing the harvest before winter's cold.

Everything grows, everything has a season, till it is gathered to the Father's fold:

Every good gift, all that we need and cherish comes from the Lord in token of His love.

We are His hands, stewards of all His bounty. His is the earth and His the heavens above.

Comments for Contemplation

The End of Christendom    Matthew 13:1-9, John 4:31-38

1. Certainly, for the first two thirds of the twentieth century, the Christian church did have a profound influence on the culture of the United States. This dominant cultural influence has sometimes been referred to as the “Christendom” of North America, a time when our society bore the deep imprint of Christian values, language and _____ regarding moral behaviors.
2. But secondly, we want our faith in Christ to come with us everywhere we go: to work, to school, to home, to the barber, to the baseball game, to the football game, to the golf course, and to _____ we do. So we bring our faith to our life, and Christ is there to guide us, help us, and teach us.
3. A missional church is a church where people realize their gifts for ministry and that they are being sent as missionaries, not simply to Timbuktu, or Borneo, or Transylvania, but to the people, places and partnerships that they _____ every day in “their 95.”
4. There were no microphones. There were a very few manuscripts with gospels and Paul’s letters, but no Bibles to speak of. No printed books were available. Writing instruments and parchment were extremely rare. There were no cars, no airplanes, no notebooks, no Starbucks (can you imagine?), no computers, no internet, no e-mail, no cell phones, no text messages, no facebook and no _____.
5. Imagine if there were a healing virus that could be passed to others, that cured a bad virus, much like a vaccination. Wouldn’t we be passing that around as fast as we could? Jesus had something like that in mind when he told the parable of the _____ in Matthew 13.
6. Jesus is making the case, that things are not as they seem. They are concerned for his physical hunger, but he says that he has food that they do not know of. It is the satisfying food of taking the _____ life of this woman and redemptively healing it. Jesus says, “My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to complete his work.”

One Great Hour of Sharing Offering

The One Great Hour of Sharing (OGHS) Offering is received during the season of Lent at FPCA. This is one of four special offerings collected during our church year. Offering envelopes are provided outside the chapel and sanctuary or designate OGHS on the memo portion of your check. Posters are located around the church halls.

Presbyterians worldwide have participated in this offering for over 60 years and give about as much as all other denominations put together. The offering gifts are divided between three programs - Self Development of People, Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, and the Presbyterian Hunger Program. For a list of how these gifts were used in previous years or for more information, see www.pcusa.org/oghs.
