John 6:66–69

Because of this, many of his disciples turned back and no longer went about with him.

So Jesus asked the twelve, “Do you also wish to go away?”

Simon Peter answered him, “Lord, to whom can we go? You have the words of eternal life.

We have come to believe and know that you are the holy one of God.”

*O how amiable are thy dwellings, thou Lord of hosts!
My soul hath a desire and longing to enter in to the courts of the Lord.
My heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.*

Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young:

Even thy altars O Lord of hosts, my king and my God.

Blessed are they that dwell in thy house, they will be always praising thee.

The glorious majesty of the Lord our God be upon us.

Prosper thou the work of our hands upon us. O prosper thou our handiwork.

Pastoral Prayer and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Praise Him above ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

§ Affirmation of Faith

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Comments for Contemplation

Abraham: God Builds a Nation

Genesis 12:1–7, 15:1–6, 18; Genesis 17:1–8, 15–22, 21:1–7

1. We will discover today that even our spiritual forebears, who seem like giants in the faith, struggled with being faithful to God, and that they are, in a sense, very regular people like you and me. That means that today, we have the same access to God that Abraham and Sarah, Isaac and Rebekah, Jacob and Rachel all had, and the same potential to change the course of history. But just like it was for them, it will depend on our _____ in the God who revealed himself to Abraham, nearly four thousand years ago.
2. And we Christians who see ourselves as an adopted branch who are also the heirs or inheritors of this blessing, are also blessed, not simply to relish and bask in our personal and special relationship with God, but in order that we might be a blessing to other people and to all families of the planet. Some of you have heard us speak about being a “missional” church, a church that seeks to embrace the “missio Dei,” the mission of God, understanding that we are indeed sent to be a _____ to others, and not simply to pat ourselves on the back about how blessed we are.
3. Abram traveled to Canaan to a place called Shechem, one of the most ancient towns in the world, that you can visit even today. There was a sacred oak at Moreh, near Shechem. And Abram built an altar to the Lord there. Included in the Story is a verse from Hebrews 11, indicating that Abram did not know where he was going. How many people have you met that come to Arlington, not knowing exactly why, not knowing if they would find a job? I have met a few. These days, some do and some don’t find jobs. But for many of them, coming here was an act of _____.
4. As Christians we also know that God loved the world so much that he sent his only Son, Jesus Christ, so that he might pay the price that we owed for our sins, and that whoever believes in him would not perish but would have everlasting life. And that Son would ultimately be raised to life just as Isaac was rescued for life. And the horror of child sacrifice and of crucifixion would be redeemed forever, through the elimination of child sacrifice and the eventual end of crucifixion, and the proclamation of the gospel of _____ grace.
5. The covenant that God made with Abraham is an unconditional one, and it is a covenant of grace. I will give you this land, I will make you great in number and in respect, and I will bless you. No conditions, but, in order to receive it you have to believe it. So Abraham, the father or ancestor of a multitude, believes God and it was accounted to him, or reckoned to him as righteousness, or as a right relationship with God. Paul makes the point that Abraham was _____ by grace through faith just as we are saved by grace through faith.

Fall Festival Luncheon

The Fellowship Committee invites you to the Fall Festival Luncheon today following the 11:00 a.m. service. David's Barbecue will be served. All are invited.

Get Yourself (and A Friend) to Church!

On September 23 and 30, 2018, we want EVERYONE to come to worship and, if possible, to bring a friend! Wear your name tag, or we will provide a paper one, so we can greet each other by name. Let's be as welcoming as we possibly can to all that we meet, and especially to our guests and visitors. Remember we are starting our series on THE STORY (a new way to learn the whole Bible) and it is a great opportunity to invite family members, neighbors and friends.

We would love to see all who are able to begin a new season of worshipping together consistently. So many of us only come once or twice per month. We urge everyone in the FPCA family to make it a goal to attend worship three or more times per month, and see if the Lord can use us in a new way for his glory, for our community and for our enjoyment.

THE STORY Sermon Series and Study

Join us as we continue our 31-week overarching tour of God's Word in the entire Bible (pausing for Advent and Christmas), using a 31-chapter book of Scriptures chronologically arranged called THE STORY.

Both the sermon series and several Sunday School classes will follow the themes of THE STORY, which requires reading less than three pages/day, or fifteen pages/week. Copies of THE STORY are available on Sundays in the red hall or in the church office, or you can order one through Christianbook.com.

Books are $6, Study Guides are $8. Come and discover how your story connects with God's story of steadfast love and mercy.
