Gathering

Preparation for Worship

*God of our life, through all the circling years, we trust in you.
In all the past, through all our hopes and fears, your hand we see.
With each new day, when morning lifts the veil,
we own your mercies, Lord, which never fail.*

Prelude

Adagio

Call to Worship

God, who has called you into fellowship with his Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord, is faithful.
He is a faithful Lord, keeping his covenant of love to a thousand generations of those who love him and keep his commands.

His faithfulness reaches to the skies and continues throughout all generations into eternity.

We therefore praise the faithfulness of our Lord Jesus Christ in this assembly saying,

“Great is your faithfulness! We will exalt and praise your name, for in perfect faithfulness you have done marvelous things. Great is your faithfulness to us, O Lord, our God.”

Let us worship God.

Introit

Worship Him as One

C. O. Beck

§ Hymn 275

A Mighty Fortress Is Our God

EIN' FESTE BURG

§ Prayer of Confession (silently, then said together)

O God, our guide, who once used a star to lead people to Christ, we confess our poor sense of direction.

We let ourselves become easily confused, easily distracted, and lose our way.

We fail to follow the signs you provide.

Forgive our waywardness, O God. Lead us to the Christ so that we may follow his way to you.
Amen.

§ Assurance of Pardon

Friends, believe the good news of the Gospel! In Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

§ The Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

§ Passing the Peace

Greet those around you with, “The peace of Christ be with you.”

§ Hymn 63

The Lord Is God

Responding

Pastoral Prayer and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Offertory (8:30)                                      Duet                                      Wilbur Held

(11:00)                                      Songs of Praise                                      African Praise Choir

*Isaiah heard the voice of the Lord. And he said here I am send me.
Here I am, send me Lord. Anywhere for you (I will go).*

Thank you my Lord Jesus. Hallelujah! Amen. We praise your name. Amen.

I will sing (dance) the hallelujah song. My Lord is so good.

I will lift Jesus higher, above other gods. God has given me the joy of my heart.

After so many years of my suffering, God has given me the joy of my heart.

§ The Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; praise Him, all creatures here below.
Praise Him above ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

§ Affirmation of Faith

This is the good news that we have received, in which we stand, and by which we are saved, if we hold it fast: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day, and that he appeared first to the women, then to Peter, and to the Twelve, and then to many faithful witnesses. We believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God. Jesus Christ is the first and the last, the beginning and the end; he is our Lord and our God. Amen.

The Kingdoms' Fall

Jeremiah 1:4–10, 14–16, 2:4–5, 11–13; Ezekiel 37:1–14

1. In 626 B.C. the word of the Lord came to a young man, saying this: “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations.” Then I said, “Ah, Lord God! Truly I do not know how to speak, for I am only a boy.” But the Lord said to me, “Do not say, ‘I am only a boy,’ for you shall go to all to whom I send you, and you shall speak whatever I command you. Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you to _____ you, says the Lord.”
2. His two constant companions were hunger and nakedness, and if he were not of a hardy constitution and, as it turns out, a growing faith in God, he most assuredly would not have survived. Like many others who find themselves in impossible circumstances, he began to pray. He had never before paid attention to the teachings of his religion; he says that he didn’t really believe in God, and he found _____ foolish. But now there was no one to turn to but the God of his parents.
3. “From the bottom of my heart, turn trustingly to the Lord my God, for nothing is impossible to him. And today he will send you food for your journey until you are filled, for he has an abundance everywhere.” The young man’s sincerity affects the weakened sailors, who bow their heads and try a moment of faith. But as their heads are bowed, the sound of a stampede attracts their attention; and as they raise their eyes, a herd of _____ tramples down the road in their direction. Not only did the Lord provide food, but the best food of all for these sailors.
4. From his own experience, Patrick could tell the good news of the gospel, because he had known the cross of fear, nakedness and starvation as a slave and a shepherd. The Lord had given him new life and even resurrection, by bringing him to faith and a deep conviction of God’s goodness and truth, even in the midst of hardship and struggle. Patrick’s is a story that transcends many Christian traditions, and we Protestants can also learn from Patricius, a slave who became an apostle to Ireland, the land of the very people who _____ and nearly killed him.
5. By the time of the Edict of the Persian king Cyrus in 538 B.C. which allowed the Jews to return to the kingdom of Judah and the city of Jerusalem, Ezekiel had long since passed from the scene, possibly as early as 563 B.C. That is important to know because Ezekiel had no way of knowing that there might be the remotest possibility of the Jews returning home. His vision of the valley of dry bones coming to life and experiencing _____ was an expression of his incredible trust in the love and mercy of Almighty God.

Reservations for the Women's Retreat will be taken Feb. 10, Feb. 17, and Feb. 24 outside the Chapel following the early service and in the Red Hall and outside the library at 10:30 to 11:00 and at noon. The brochures and registration forms are available in the church office through the week and may be mailed to Bev Koch, 2808 Burlwood Drive, Arlington, TX 76016. Please contact Bev at 817-261-3202, if you have any questions.

Financial Peace University

Are you (or someone you know) always wondering where all your money went each month? What if you had no house payment? What if your kid(s) college(s) were paid for? What if you could retire with peace? What if you could GIVE more than you've ever been able to give? What if you were debt-free, investing and making wise spending decisions? With Dave Ramsey's class Financial Peace University, you CAN take control of your money and start planning for your future, regardless of where you are in life. If you're interested in learning more about the class, contact Katie Hageman at katieLhageman@gmail.com or Steve Floro at 513-255-1444.

First Presbyterian Church of Arlington is offering it on Saturdays from 10:00 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. CST, February 16th - April 13th 2019. If you would like to sign up, go to the following link www.goo.gl/guB2tq or ask us to help you! Membership and materials costs $109 through this class link. If you've gone through the class already but would like a refresher, please sign up at no cost. Also, please feel free to reach out to me if you have any questions.

Saints Alive to Meet on February 21

On Thursday, February 21, the seniors of the church will meet for a potluck lunch and entertaining program. Dace Sultanov, a beautiful Russian cellist, will thrill us with her dramatic musical interpretations on the cello. So, prepare a casserole, salad or dessert to share and join us for a delightful afternoon. Any questions, call Bev Koch at 817-261-3202.
