Call to Worship

Death has been swallowed up in victory!

Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death is your sting?

The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.

But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Alleluia! Christ is risen!

Alleluia! Christ is risen indeed!

§ Hymn 245

Christ the Lord is Risen Today

LLANFAIR

§ Prayer of Confession (silently, then together)

Almighty God, in raising Jesus from the grave you shattered the power of sin and death. We confess that we remain captive to doubt and fear, bound by the ways that lead to death. We overlook the poor and the hungry, and pass by those who mourn.

Forgive us God of mercy. Help us to trust your power to change our lives and make us new, so that we may know the joy of life abundant given in Jesus Christ, the risen Lord. Amen.

§ Assurance of Pardon

Friends, believe the good news of the Gospel! In Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

§ The Gloria Patri

MEINEKE

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

§ Passing the Peace

Greet those around you with, "The peace of Christ be with you."

§ Hymn 233

Comments for Contemplation

Of First Importance 1 Corinthians 15:1–11, John 20:1–18

1. But as others look at us, there, no doubt are some who say, “People have forgotten God. That’s why all this has happened.” I hope that the people here today are among those who have not forgotten God. Do we know what is of first _____ in our lives?
2. We need to put first things first, and see if, by the grace of God, we can’t become better people and make a better world. But most of all, we need to entrust our lives to the One who died a _____ death on the cross, and yet was raised as our living Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
3. If Christ is not alive, then his unjust death at the cross was simply the end, not a means of _____ for the entire world. Christ’s followers, by their own admission, did not expect his resurrection.
4. Not only does it remind us that death does not have the last word in our human experience, but also that Jesus’ divine life of love, and compassion and servanthood has been vindicated by God through Jesus’ death and resurrection. We can say with confidence: Jesus was who he said he was, God’s _____ Son, the Messiah, the living Son of the living God.
5. The early Christians did not hesitate to identify themselves with a man who had been branded a traitor and a criminal. They endured imprisonment, torture, exile, and death rather than renounce their commitment to the resurrected Christ. Even from a secular point of view, the evidence for the resurrection is surprisingly _____.
6. And after they go back home, Jesus’ first resurrection appearance comes to Mary Magdalene. And Jesus gives her the assignment of giving the message to his disciples, that she had seen the Lord and that he is _____ to his Father and their Father, to his God and to their God.
