

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH ARLINGTON

New Members June 2, 2019

Timothy (Tim) Culp

I was raised in a Christian home. I attended a non-denominational church. I have worked as an organist &/or choir director since 1985. In 1992 I became Presbyterian and joined the Presbyterian church. I served in church Music Ministry at five Presbyterian churches through my life. I have been involved in college and community theater for many years.

Shina Heo

I was born in Busan, South Korea. I came to the U.S. to study organ music and am in SMU's Masters program. My passion for church and organ music lead me to FPCA.

Rose Ngwanah

My name is Rose Afor Ngwanah. I am married to F. M. Michael Ngwanah. Before leaving for the U.S.A. about six years ago, from Cameroon, Central Africa, I was a Christian member of the Presbyterian Church of Limbe, Fako Division Down Beach Presbyterian church as a member of good standing and served the church well. To some extent I influenced some new members to join the church or church groups. As a housewife I have also influenced some of my domestic servants to join the church membership or groups. Thanks for service. I am married with 6 kids and 32 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.
