Finishing the Race

By Pastor Rich McDermott

"As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully. As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." --2 Timothy 4:5-7

The Apostle Paul writes an earnest pastoral letter from a veteran missionary to a younger colleague in 2 Timothy. Paul is facing the end of his career and, in this letter, demonstrates his Christian faith and fortitude in the face of near certain martyrdom. The quotation above is a moving testimony of this remarkable apostle showing his affection and concern for Timothy and the churches he oversees. Timothy is urged to rekindle the gift of God within him (1:3-7); he is not to be ashamed of bearing witness to the Lord (1:8-18); and he is to take his share of suffering as a good soldier of Jesus Christ (2:1-13). He must handle God's Word rightly in facing false teachers (2:14-19), purify himself as a fit vessel for the Lord's use (2:20-26), and learn from Paul's example (3:10-17).

While I do not pretend to compare myself to the great apostle Paul, and while my retirement in January 2021 does not mean that my ministry is at an end, I can relate to his sense that the end of his "race" is before him, of having "fought the good fight," and in believing that in my 41.5 years of pastoral ministry, I have "kept the faith." The affection he feels for Timothy is especially comparable to the affection I feel for you all, for Chris, for the staff, for our volunteers and for our wonderful congregation. Thank you all so much for fighting the good fight, keeping the faith, and enduring suffering in this past year with COVID and at other times before this. I am grateful to God for you and for your commitment to our Lord Jesus Christ and His Church.

I have now been at FPCA for nearly six years, and I believe the Lord has accomplished a few things through us and for us: 1) by God's grace, we have witnessed a new stability in the leadership, the staff, the worship and the ministry of FPCA, after a difficult period; 2) by God's grace, we have remained focused on being faithful to the Lord Jesus Christ, to orthodox Biblical teaching, to passionate discipleship, and to compassionate mission and ministry in Christ's name; 3) by God's grace, we are genuinely committed to our mission of transforming life by glorifying God, following Jesus, and loving our neighbor; 4) by God's grace, we are committed to maintaining the unity of God's Spirit in the bond of peace (Eph. 4:3), and to avoiding senseless controversies (2 Tim. 2:23); and 5) by God's grace, we are more committed to generosity as a way of life, sharing abundantly in every good work (2 Cor. 9:6-8).

That is not to say that we have arrived where God wants us...far from it. We have a long way to go (even in our capital campaign, ☺). Hopefully, though, we are on the right path and headed in the right direction...by God's grace.

The most important person I can thank is my wife, Betsy, whom many of you know. Without her, I could not do what I do. Betsy did her best to be at almost every service we held so she could know the people at both the 8:30 and 11:00 services, and she often knew them better than I did! She served as a deacon, assisted in worship, loved being with others, attended Book Club, visited the homebound, welcomed the stranger and the new guest, visited those in the hospital, and helped grow and lead a community of friends from her "Boot Camp" exercise group. She is truly amazing! She does all the work, and I usually get all the credit. (Please listen to what I say, and please follow what Betsy does!) Please let Betsy know if you have benefitted from her ministry and friendship. I am richly blessed to be her husband.

Betsy and I are so grateful to the Lord for calling us here, and for the members of the PNC through whom He spoke and who made it happen (Judy Northup, Ken Floyd, Larry Stephenson, Mary Spencer, Bob Watkins, Michelle Craig, and David Sparks). All of these fine people are amazing servants of the Lord, as are all of those who have served on Session, Deacons, Trustees, Congregational Nominating Team, and all of our ministry teams. Thank you all for your ministry to the Lord!

I also want to thank my friend and colleague, Rev. Chris Campbell. We are very richly blessed to have had him as our associate and co-pastor for 4.5 years and now as our lead pastor beginning in 2021. It is rare to find a pastor with Chris' vision, humility, commitment to Christ, and character. Let me urge you not to be a thorn in his side but to be a caring, supportive and loving colleague in ministry to Chris, and give yourself to the Lord's work alongside him. He will be without an associate pastor for a time, and he will need help equipping the saints for the work of ministry, and for building up the body of Christ (Eph. 4:11-16). Pray for him always.

Betsy and I will be living in south Denver, Colorado nearer Betsy's dad and my mom, near two of our children and their spouses (Matt and Alex McDermott who have our g-kids, Finley and Gus, and Leo and Ellen Anglin-Alonso) and several of our siblings and their families. Our new temporary address will be:

32 Glenmoor Dr.

Englewood, CO 80113

In the future, you can use these email addresses:

Rich's email: richmcdermott7@gmail.com 970-218-3689

Betsy's email: betsymcd23@gmail.com 970-219-9232

May the Lord continue to bless you and yours here at FPCA.

Continuing Education Reflections

Last month I spent some time studying and planning for 2021. I had accumulated a stack of books and I finally set aside some intentional time to plow through as much as I could. To be honest, some of the plowing was quick and easy – good information, but confirmation of much I already knew and not too challenging. So I as I worked through my stack, I picked up another book and immediately had to slow down my pace. For one, the print was much smaller. But more importantly, I sensed God working to stretch my spirit and my level of comfort which is always good reason to slow down and think, “Uh oh!”

I love our congregation. We are not monolithic. There is diversity theologically, politically, chronologically, socioeconomically, and ethnically. We intentionally strive to reflect that in our elected leadership and our worship leadership. And that is important to do so because our church should reflect our community and to be honest, that honors and celebrates God's incredible creativity. We are all formed in his image and therefore we honor and celebrate who God is as we recognize him in each of us.

In Mark Demyaz's book Building a Healthy Multi-Ethnic Church, he writes from his experience of intentionally forming a church that reflects God's rich and diverse creation. As I was reading, it was easy to think that the mission of their church was to serve as an example of how to reconcile racial divisions and struggles. And while they are doing that, it is not their mission. First and foremost, they recognize that before reconciliation and healing can occur among God's people, people need to first be reconciled with God.

As a congregation of the PC(USA), we proudly stand in a tradition that has stood against racism and discrimination. It is a biblical stance and it is reflected in our confessions – perhaps most notably in the Confession of 1967. It too begins with first discussing reconciliation with God and the church's role in response. A portion of the conclusion states: "[The church] does not identify limited progress with the kingdom of God on earth, nor does it despair in the face of disappointment and defeat. In steadfast hope, the church looks beyond all partial achievement to the final triumph of God." In other words, we cannot grow complacent nor can we become cynical. We will remain steadfast as we strive to reconcile God's people with him, and then with one another. And just because we will not achieve on earth as in heaven overnight, or maybe ever before Jesus' return, we will not stop trying.

Pastor Chris.

The CARES Act for Donors in 2020

There are Two New Tax Benefits for Donors in 2020

The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act created two, temporary changes to the tax treatment of donations.

For those who do not itemize their charitable giving, the CARES Act will allow these individual taxpayers to deduct cash donations to a qualified charity (FPCA is a qualified charity) of up to $300 on their 2020 federal tax return, even though they take the standard deduction. Married-filing-jointly taxpayers will get an above-the-line deduction of up to $600. Above the line" means it reduces taxable income before it is "adjusted".

For those donors who are able to itemize their deductions, and directly write off gifts to charity, the CARES Act lifted the deduction cap from 60% of AGI (adjusted gross income) and raised it to 100% of AGI for individuals and joint filers. For individuals, it could theoretically mean zero taxable income if someone gives large gifts. The percentages relate to adjusted gross income (AGI). For 2020, a person who itemizes (uses Schedule A) may take a charitable deduction of up to 100% of adjusted gross income (AGI - the amount of income eligible to be taxed). In 2021 it will only be 60% of AGI.

The deductibility cap for donations to donor-advised funds, gifts of appreciated stocks, and gifts to private foundations are not included and remain subject to the 30% AGI rule.

FPCA's Two Special Offerings in December

Our church supports two special offerings during the month of December. One is the Christmas Joy Offering which goes directly to Presbytery. The other goes to Presbyterian Children's Homes and Services (PCHAS). Offering envelopes are in the office, chapel hallway and the narthex or designate on your check which offering you are supporting. If you want envelopes mailed to you, please contact the church to make your request.

A Presbyterian tradition for almost seventy years, the Christmas Joy Offering is designated by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church to provide congregations a direct way of supporting specific causes that help those in need. The receipts from the Joy Offering are distributed equally to the Board of Pensions for assistance programs and to the National Ministries of the General Assembly Council to support Presbyterian racial ethnic education. To read a brief account of how one family benefited from the Christmas Joy Offering, visit: <https://specialofferings.pcusa.org/story/arms-church-around-us/>.

Our church continually supports PCHAS but especially at Christmas. During FPCA's Christmas Eve services the undesignated offerings will benefit PCHAS. To find out more about PCHAS, visit: <http://www.pchas.org>. You may also speak to Marge and Bob Dawson, PCHAS Ambassadors and volunteers, about this very worthy organization which supports many children and families in a variety of ways throughout Texas.

Presbyterian Children's Homes and Services™

We Need You Now More Than Ever!

As families who were already struggling face record unemployment rates and uncertainties caused by the recent pandemic, PCHAS is stepping up to provide them with the Christ-centered care and support they need. That means we need you now more than ever.

This Christmas children need us to help them through this crisis, and one way you can facilitate those efforts is by supporting our work financially. PCHAS works with children and families to address their needs and set goals for the future. Our staff help children reduce anxieties, improve behavior, and feel loved and healthy while helping parents increase their employability, self-sufficiency and parenting skills. This Christmas your gifts can provide hope, healing and bright futures to vulnerable children and families.

As we strive to serve like Jesus by welcoming all those who need our help, we ask that you join our mission of faith by considering a generous donation today.

Mitten Tree 2020

FPCA will not be setting up the Mitten Tree for donations this year. We are not using the portion of the church that houses the tree, and we have a reduced number of members coming physically to the church services. Typically, warm clothing items such as mittens or gloves, socks, scarves, etc. are donated. If you would like to contribute this year, please donate directly to Mission Arlington. You can learn about what they need most, along with other information, on their website: missionarlington.org

Gifts of Hope 2020

FPCA will not be setting up tables for the Gifts of Hope donations this year. We have a reduced number of members coming physically to the church during Covid-19. Typically, members would give a donation for a non-traditional gift (for example, a duck or a chicken through World Vision) and would receive a card to give notifying the recipient that a donation was given to a non-profit organization on behalf of the individual. While we will not be standing in the hallway collecting funds for these gifts, members may go directly to the websites for these individual organizations and submit donations.

MONTHLY OVERVIEW

Merry Christmas! We are going to have an incredibly sweet month as we combine the Christmas story with Christmas cookies! It is going to be so much fun!

While cookie cutters, decorations, and excitement will fill this entire month, the focus will be Jesus—specifically, Jesus is God's Son. We want every preschooler to know that what we are celebrating this time of year is the wonderful truth that God loved the world so much that He gave us His only Son, Jesus.

We pray that we will all enter this month with the same wonder the shepherds had as they heard the good news for the very first time—a wonder that will inspire us all to go and tell everyone, everywhere that Jesus is God's Son.

THE CONNECTION BETWEEN CHRISTMAS AND GOD'S CHARACTER, AS SHOWN THROUGH GOD'S BIG STORY

Christmas can be filled with all sorts of emotions. Some people easily experience the joy of the season. Some rest in the hope that God is making all things new. But others struggle to find peace due to life's circumstances. With all that's going on this time of year, we thought it'd be great to go back to the basics and simply celebrate Christmas.

The truth is Jesus is best gift God ever gave. Jesus was proof that God loves us and we can trust God no matter what. Because of Jesus, it's possible for us to have a relationship with God that will last forever. As we remember the Christmas story, we take time to celebrate the greatest gift the world has ever known and rediscover, joy and hope and peace as we rest in the unconditional love of God.

A Letter to Parents Who Hurt During the Holidays

by Leah Jennings

Hey, friend:

Yes, you. The one who's dreading the upcoming holiday season. I know you get this pit in your stomach whenever you think about it, but you try to put on a cheerful face for your kids and your family. You try so hard.

I know the holiday season for you isn't all pumpkin spice and scoring great deals on gifts. For you, the holiday season is a source of sadness, disappointment, loneliness, and maybe even a little anger. It reminds you of what you've lost, that there aren't enough paychecks between now and Christmas, and how this is just one more thing that isolates you from everyone else.

Did you know you can do the holiday season differently this year, friend? Did you know that you can stop putting pressure on yourself, draw hard lines in the sand about what you will and won't do? Did you know your holiday season can be a bit more tolerable this year? Maybe not perfect, but not soul-suckingly awful either. Here's how:

Feel free to grieve.

The holidays are supposed to be joyful and it's sad when they're not. Putting on a brave face isn't a requirement. If you're hurting or angry, honor and make room for those feelings.

Be okay with minimizing stress in whatever way you need to.

That may look like saying no to things that used to be yeses. Maybe it means skipping out on family functions that make you feel uncomfortable. Maybe it's enforcing a strict spending limit. Maybe it's boundaries.

Prioritize what matters.

What are the things that matter to you most during this season? What are the things you actually like, not the things that you're obligated to enjoy? Make time for those things. Those things should be higher up on your list.

Do something for you.

Maybe the holidays aren't your favorite, but that shouldn't stop you from doing your favorite things. Why not reframe this season as a time when you focus on the things that also make you happy?

I hope this season turns out to be a better one for you this year. Are the holidays usually hard for you? How do you cope?

Blessings in Christ,

Adrian
